TACITUS bumped soundly in the shadow of the starting gate due to pressure originating from JOEVIA, became rank on the bit approaching the end of the homestretch, got clipped from behind by OVERDELIVER, himself somewhat unsettled at the time, settled into stride soon afterwards and took up the chase at or near the two path all the way to the quarter pole, got cued up angling approximately four wide into the lane, became locked up in an one on one contest with TAX, briefly went shoulder to shoulder with that foe prior to and then after poking a head down in front deep into the furlong grounds, came inward in a steadfast fashion in the last eighth, leading the runner up to move closer to the rail too, got the job done and edged away. TAX unscathed during the opening stages of the race, went about towards path two travelling on the first turn, was patiently ridden keeping watch on the duelers, tipped to the outside prior to stepping off the backstretch positioned now in path three, began to close the gap when let out a notch at the three-eighths pole, was on the cusp of taking charge stepping into the lane, with TACITUS also looming boldly one path farther to the outside, rubbed shoulders with that foe as that opponent forged to the front during a spirited tussle, fell back slowly but steadily, shifting inward same as the winner did in the last eighth, until in tight very late, finally crossing the wire in hand. HAIKAL unhurried taking the two path until the quarter pole, was under encouragement spinning into the stretch, kicked into his best coming up to the eighth pole, split rivals in deep stretch rallying for the show. MATH WIZARD shied inward and away from JOEVIA after some light contact with OUTSHINE at the start, underwent a two wide trip, got driven five wide into lane, failed to make any significant headway in the final furlong. NOT THAT BRADY gap-dued with JOEVIA from path two for the majority of the opening three-quarters, shook free momentarily leaving the three-eighths pole only to get pounced upon by both of the first two finishers a furlong later, stepped into the lane and steadily backed away. FINAL JEOPARDY squeezed soon after the field had been sent on its way, cut over to the rail, continued along the inside thereafter all the way to the top of the lane, was under encouragement angling four wide into the lane, raced erratically reacting to whichever side the stick was being applied, all the while making no impact. JOEVIA away alertly, angled sharply over to the inside, heck-bent on a mission for the front end, did indeed reach the top and the rail too, but not before causing severe crowding, raced as a team with NOT THAT BRADY isolated from the others to the three-eighths pole before calling it a day. HOFFA'S UNION in hand early to avoid contact after the start, swung three wide onto and off the backstretch, got ridden five wide into the lane, flattened out in the final furlong. GRUMPS LITTLE TOTS pinched after the start, was one-paced coming three wide onto the backstretch, never made it into a contending position. OUTSHINE brushed after bobbling at the start, raced three wide on the first turn, tucked over to the rail approaching the half mile pole, was lightly hand ridden cutting the corner into the stretch, was kept to it, allowed to fade away. OVERDELIVER checked getting viciously squeezed and pushed to the inside a few strides into the contest, was directly alongside the winner as the twosome headed for the clubhouse bend, stumbled after clipping the heels of the aforementioned foe right after entering it, continued along in the three path the rest of the way to the top of the backstretch, was about as wide on turn two, galloped into the lane put to a protective hold and would remain under it all the way to the wire. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the start of the race, JOEVIA was disqualified and unplaced for having causing interference.
