NEWLY MINTED got engaged in a tussle with STONESINTHEROAD very shortly after the field has been sent on its way, slid over to the inside route at the top of the turn, after being mostly two wide prior to that action, still had the rider holding something in reserve late on the bend even as the nemesis was getting called upon for much herself by this juncture, extended the lead when put to an abbreviated drive at the three-sixteenths marker, then extended it even more when ridden out in the final furlong. KID IS FROSTY along the outside at all times, departed the backstretch from path two, showed no ill effects after brushing with CANARSIE PRINCESS a few strides later, picked it up and out-raced ALPHADORA for position at the midway point of the turn, by now stationed in path three, was much like the others heading home, that is swung to the outside, settled in at path five before being straightened away, proved no match. BANGLE GAL bobbled springing from the gate, with the hind legs appearing to given out on the sloppy going, moved inward in time to commence the run around the bend from the two path, got sent five wide to the three-sixteenths pole, rallied for the show. ALPHADORA raced three then four wide on the turn, having lost its path to the runner up right about the three-eighths pole, wandered into path seven racing in the stretch, lacked the needed response. FAIR LASSIE took up the chase from the two path, came into the stretch and made no impact. PRETTY SPECTACULAR saved ground to the five-sixteenths pole, was ridden into path seven during the ensuing furlong, had no rally. DANCING SLIPPERS three wide onto turn, went six wide exiting it, failed to menace. STONESINTHEROAD pressed the winner from along the outside, undertaking the task from path two on the turn, gave way. CANARSIE PRINCESS moved quickly onto the inside route, was lightly bumped off stride by the second place finisher leaving the half mile pole, was roused getting tipped to the outside soon afterwards, backed away once in the stretch.
