TODO ES TORO was checked, rated back at the start, taken outside, was unhurried and raced in the back, rallied around the turn, bid five wide, closed steadily, got up past the sixteenth pole and drew off under urging. BOLD FLAME was in hand around the first turn, contended for the lead, was taken back on the second turn, angled out, bid between horses to duel, inched away past the eighth pole, led past the sixteenth pole and was outclosed to finish second best. KEYSON got away well, led around the first turn, vied to the second turn, inched away for a short lead, continued willingly once headed and held safely for show. LINEMANS CHECK saved ground to the upper stretch, altered course, closed well and didn't have enough late. MR DEJAVU settled off the pace, rallied on the turn, challenged three across, dueled to the eighth pole and faltered. LOUD N PROUD pressed the pace while racing three across, fell back along the backstretch, had nothing left for the drive and faded through the stretch.
