B. m. (May), by Half Ours - Brown Eyed Baby, by Mineshaft. Trainer Jones J Larry. Bred by Clifford Grum (La).

OURS TO RUN pressed the issue early outside, three wide bid turn, dueled into the lane, came in slightly to brush with the runner up in upper stretch, continued on equal terms with that one past the furlong marker, edging clear late while fully extended. A CLAIM OF FOUL BY THE TRAINER OF OUR MILLIE AGAINST THE WINNER FOR ALLEGED INTERFERENCE IN UPPER STRETCH WAS NOT ALLOWED. OUR MILLIE broke alertly, pressed the early leader from the outside, vied between horses through the turn, dueled inside the winner into the lane, exchanged a brush in upper stretch after coming out slightly, dueled until late before stubbornly yielding to the winner, clearly second best. TENSAS THOUGHT evenly paced behind the first flight for three furlongs inside, moved out a bit for the drive, along for the show late picking up a tiring early leader, no match for the top pair. LA MISTAKE narrowly showed the way early inside the top two, began to gradually weaken late in the turn, caught late for the show. P BOO last away, raced back, improved slightly while not a threat. SWEET PRAYERS failed to menace while racing outside. HALF A MILLION trailed throughout and was never a factor.
