SOUPER HOT stalked the early leader throughout, advancing to bid for the front at the quarter pole, got into a ding-dong battle with that rival down the lane and began to inch away from the eighth pole to the wire. SOUPER SUCCESS set a pressured pace throughout, trading leads with the winner down the stretch, giving way grudgingly in the final eighth to the wire. CORDUROY ROAD settled in mid pack along the rail before moving up inside on the turn, gave the rider trouble by the quarter pole bearing out under restraint, gathered himself up in the stretch to take dead aim on the leaders, but lugged in down the lane, closing with good energy late. SOCIETY'S TIGER was off a half step slow and fell off the pace, came with a two to five wide run on the turn while trying to bear out , outfinishing the balance down the lane. BOURBON STRITTA leaped in the air at the start falling off the pace, put in a lively rail run around the turn but stalled in upper stretch, tired from that rally. G PRINCE OF SILVER raced in mid pack, was steadied two to four wide when a rival bore out on him late on the turn, not responding with any run when his rider asked for one from that point. AFTER A STEWARDS INQUIRY, BOURBON STRITTA WAS DEEMED TO HAVE RECEIVED AN UNFAIR START AND ALL SINGLE RACE BETS WAGERED ON HIM WERE REFUNDED.
