INSTILLED REGARD away without apparent mishap, took up position in the two path, picked up interest after departing the backstretch, shifted into the three path during the early stages of the run around the second bend, chopped away at the deficit under confident handling while between rivals, was poised to strike the front spinning into the lane on near even terms with the pacesetter, arrived at the three-sixteenths marker and turned loose, went about the lane in an erratic manner anywhere from path four to path two, reacting to whichever side stick work was being applied, yet made the front, felt the presence of the runner up late but held sway. DEVAMANI (FR) darted over to the rail, stayed stationed along it until the conclusion of the backstretch, got guided into the two path at the half mile pole, in time to elude a rival that was in the first stages of a steady retreat, angled four wide into the stretch, kicked into her best and rallied for the place, coming up just short for the win slot. SOMELIKEITHOTBROWN grabbed the top in short order, proved able to rate showing the way, spaced at a slight distance from off the inside route, felt some pressure for the initial time after entering the second bend, came under a drive in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole after the eventual winner drew directly abreast, stepped into the stretch, yielded reluctantly during the ensuing furlong, stayed for the show. SYNCHRONY strung out three to four on each bend, gave way. FLOP SHOT (IRE) saved ground during the opening phases, raced from two path on the far turn, briefly waited behind a wall of equines approaching the quarter pole, went into the stretch, failed to fire appreciably when given his cue. SOCIAL PARANOIA underwent a two wide pursuit during the trip leading up to the head of the stretch then gave way. TEMPLE tracked the pocket loosely pocketed during the initial stages, slipped into the two path after crossing the midway point of the second turn, chased the winner from between rivals the rest of the way to the quarter pole with good energy while being vigorously ridden, checked when in tight coming up to the quarter pole, had the rider try to get going again, failed to regain interest then was allowed to fade away with a protective hold being applied. TRIBHUVAN (FR) bobbed with the rein snapping soon after the start, was steered extremely wide and out of harm's way to any of the others despite being basically rudderless, remained so both on the backstretch and the far turn, got expertly guided over to the rail once in the stretch, was subsequently apprehended by an outrider inside the sixteenth pole and walked off the course. GUCCI FACTOR took the inside route, was through after going three-quarters pole, wandered four wide into the stretch on empty then was allowed to fade away protected. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the incident in the homestretch, the result was allowed to stand and the race was declared official.
