Ch. f, (Apr), by Hightail - Dedham, by Storm and a Half. Trainer Hewitt Michael. Bred by Dr J W Clement DVM (Ark).

SHE'S STORMING broke with the leaders, vied between foes into and through the turn, shook clear when straightened for home, held runner up safe in the late going under continued steady handling. BENNYKAYANDSUZYTOO broke on top, raced forwardly placed and outside, contested the issue four wide through the turn, lost some ground to the winner into the lane, slowly getting back to that one late. MS CARROLL COUNTY mid pack, behind horses behind the lead flight into the lane, angled in, bid for place late, outkicked for that position. FLY LIKE THE WIND in the main group while racing off the inside, patiently handled behind traffic late in the turn, improved in upper stretch when clear then went flat late. SASSY LASS in the main body up the backstretch outside, angled five down to the two path late turn, traffic into the lane, improved inside through the lane. SUMMORYA off slowly, raced back and in the two path, improved inside of some rivals into the lane then went flat through the lane. COUNT IT ALL JOY broke alertly, narrowly showed the way up the backstretch closest to the inside, began a gradual fade after a half. DOUGHTY raced within contact of the lead pack well wide, five wide turn, failed to muster a rally. UNBEARABLE off a step slow, raced back and off the inside, angled out to be four wide by midway on the turn, lacked a closing response. LASSIE MY GIRL lacked speed well wide, six wide through the turn, failed to rally as well. BETTY JO pressured the pace from the three path for three furlongs, stopped by late in the turn.
