FOREVER UNBRIDLED lost her footing as the field was sent off and running after brushing into the left side of the gate, sat isolated at the back of the pack to the half mile pole, firmly rated and towards the two path, stepped onto the far turn from the path four, launched herself into contention with a sustained run, beginning it at the midway point, pilot still atop like a statue and with a strong grip on the reins, saw the mount yield to light pressure on the right side by swinging out seven to eight wide from the end of the second bend to the eighth pole, had the rider resort to a stronger hand ride after being straightened away, and instantly settled into her best stride, collared the second place finisher in the final forty yards and edged away, best described as being ridden out. SONGBIRD away the quickest, with the field breaking in a straight line, established control with ease, sailed along in the two path, well rated and on an open lead, made it to the quarter pole without any having hitched up to her, raced from the head of the stretch to the sixteenth pole, lightly ridden out, was called upon for much more in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, with the eventual winner having drawn up menacingly, got reeled in during the final forty yards. ESKENFORMONEY worked out a tuck along the rail early on the clubhouse bend, tracked the leader from afar, held in reserve to the conclusion of the backstretch, was let out a notch on the far turn in an attempt to close the deficit, cut the corner and put in her best run from the top of the lane to midstretch, wasn't up to the task at hand. GOING FOR BROKE stalked SONGBIRD three wide on each bend, being asked for some run on the far turn, came into the stretch and had no response.
