Ch. h, (Feb), by Wildcat Heir - Rainbow Pride, by Prospectors Gamble. Trainer Servis Jason. Bred by New Farm (NJ).

RAINBOW HEIR found way to inside path while well rated not far off contested pace, raced inside of POOL PARTY before angling out near the quarter pole, roused forward five wide in striking range then given cue to kick on, responded gamely and forged ahead. OAK BLUFFS was taken back to rate off early pace, saved ground along rail, came under ride three wide at head of the lane, gathered momentum and progressed between runners to get up in time for second best. RICHARD'S BOY raced near the lead at the start then edged back to track embattled pair positioned along outside of rival, responded when called upon at head of the lane, then followed forward four wide to race off late leader then evened out nearing wire losing place. TOMBELAINE raced near the back in early going, saved ground along rail in the turn before angling out, shaken up for the drive and improved. POOL WINNER chased midpack along outside in early stages, put to drive at head of the lane, finished evenly. SUCCESSFUL NATIVE sent to lead with quick speed and battled for lead racing along inside of PAY ANY PRICE, continued heated pace battle then set sail for drive then began to tire, swallowed up in final furlong, pulled up in turn then vanned off after the race. SIR NAVIGATOR lacked speed and raced in the back then showed some interest and passed tiring foes in the lane. PAY ANY PRICE head was turned slightly at the start then hustled up quickly to duel for lead, battled gamely along outside of SUCCESSFUL NATIVE through the turn then could not maintain equal terms at head of lane, kept along in contention then came up empty in final furlong. JAGUAR POZ raced off early pace and lacked needed rally for impact in the lane. BLIND AMBITION raced five wide off early pace and failed to rally in the lane. CONQUEST ENFORCER chased top pair positioned along outside of rival, could not keep up pace, faded in the lane.
