Ch. g, (May), by English Channel - Stormy Illusion, by Woodman. Trainer Pion Sylvain. Bred by Douglas J Reddington (Ont-C).

ENGLISH ILLUSION settled in range of the two leaders for the first mile, then commenced a two to four wide run midway through the final turn, got the lead at the eighth pole and drifted out by the seventy yard pole but held off the place horse determinedly. JOHNNY BEAR tracked the leaders along the inside throughout, brushed with a rival who was pinning him in on the rail down the lane, then finally found room and closed on the leader inside the sixteenth pole but was steadied twice late when the leader appeared to drift into his path. KING AND HIS COURT settled in at the rear until the final turn, made a three wide move coming into the stretch and passed a few tired rivals late without threatening. EMINENT FORCE assumed command early, was stalked and pressed throughout by a rival, held strong until the eighth pole when headed and backed up late in the run to the wire. ETHICAL FUNDS stalked the leader through the first mile, then was roused to press the front runner through the final turn, brushed with a rival mid stretch and faded after that contact. MICK THE CONQUEROR raced in the two path at the rear, attempted to rally into the four path late on the final turn but did not reach a contending position at any point. THE RIDER ON JOHNNY BEAR CLAIMED FOUL AGAINST ENGLISH ILLUSION FOR INTERFERENCE IN THE STRETCH BUT AFTER REVIEW THE STEWARDS ALLOWED THE RESULT TO STAND.
