NEW YORK CENTRAL bobbed at the break, quickly recovered and saved ground well in range of a contested pace, eased out to the two path around the turn, shifted back in leaving the three sixteenths, closed under strong handling to engage the leaders soon after, forged clear with about a sixteenth remaining and held firm. PROFORMA prompted three wide outside the dueling leaders, came four wide for the drive, drifted out a bit when ranging up nearing the eighth pole, was corrected with the right stick, kept on willingly and gained the place. LEWISFIELD, away alertly, disputed the pace to the inside of WENTZ, came off the rail into the lane, held a slim advantage leaving the furlong grounds, could not resist the winner and gave way grudgingly. WENTZ vied outside LEWISFIELD to about mid stretch and gave way. FELLOWSHIP, between rivals early, failed to menace. PARADE OF NATIONS, three to four wide outside rivals early on, failed to make an impact.
