PATCHES O'HOULIHAN broke out on the start having a slim lead while hounded inside down the backstretch, finally cleared to the rail at the seven sixteenths marker, opened up briefly into the turn, was headed again on the outside by the pesky early speed foe by the quarter pole, sharply opened up when roused in upper stretch and was kept to the task to hold safe at the finish line. REMUDA was unhurried to trail in the early going, continued to see the field on the rail throughout the turn, skimmed the fence gathering speed turning for home, was full of run at the eighth pole, closing in late but it wasn't enough at the wire. WAR BOMBER (IRE) tracked the front duo while outside of a runner along the backside, was roused keeping pace with the leaders throughout the turn, shifted four wide for the stretch run, determinedly fought on down the lane and won the tight photo for the show money. IRONSTONE settled in the third flight outside a rival down the backside, was scrubbed on four wide at the quarter pole for more, shifted out to the six path at the top of the stretch and finished up with intent to almost close in and get the show money. I'M A GAMBLER (IRE) stalked on the fence in the third flight in the early stages of the race, picked up the bit three wide inside a foe when nudged at the quarter pole, angled out five wide for the drive and finished up mildly between but could not pose a threat late. LAST AMERICAN EXIT had a tracking position on the rail behind the lead duo down the back straight, came under a ride chasing the front pair around the bend but to no avail and flattened out between foes in the three-path at the sixteenth pole. ROCKCREST pressed the pace inside down the backstretch, was reined back with seven sixteenths to go, re-engaged on the outside by the quarter pole, was repelled by the winner in upper stretch, fought the good fight but wilted in the last sixteenth.
