Dk. b or br. f, (Sep), by Lookin At Lucky - Winter Cat-Chi, by Cat Thief. Trainer Brown Chad C. Bred by Haras Paso Nevado (Chi).

WOW CAT (CHI) took up position in midpack after an apparent clean beginning, departed the backstretch from path three, chipped away at the deficit, was in hand wrestling away the advantage leaving the three-eighths pole, edged away during the remainder of the trip on the turn, got called upon for more spinning into the stretch, responded and drew clear. DIVINE MISS GREY vacated the pocket after being stationed there for almost six furlongs, was under urging angling three wide into the lane, proved no match rallying for the place. VERVE'S TALE off the inside throughout, was strung out four wide at the three-eighths pole, shifted closer to the rail during the stretch run, went on to secure the show. TERESA Z at near the two path during the initial stages, tipped into path three midway on the turn, was maneuvered towards the outside after stepping into the lane, wound up about six wide when done, then was outfinished. COME DANCING prompted the pace two wide and gave way. BERNED rode the rail to the head of the stretch to no avail. DREAMCALL three wide onto the turn, was never involved. FARRELL quickly established control, showed the way from the inside, had no answer when the winner arrived on the scene at the three-eighths pole, succumbed and backed away.
