Gr/ro. g, (Mar), by Texas Wildcatter - Kiss of Gold, by Gold Fever. Trainer Snow Mel. Bred by Mel Snow & Fran Snow (BC-C).

DRILLER allowed to settle, moved up into striking distance, shifted out to the four path, hustled up three-wide joining HEY BRO, edged away under steady urging and held under a driving finish. SIR BRONX lacked running room leaving the chute, was forwardly placed in the four path through the backstretch, moved up menacingly at the quarter pole, angled out to the three path upper stretch, kept under strong urging, finished with a final kick and just missed. HEY BRO away well, was reserved off the pacesetters, gained the lead at the three eighths pole then quickly responded to challenge from SIR BRONX, was headed into the stretch, dug in mid stretch and collared deep stretch. CLEAR THE RUNWAY saved inside early, hustled three to four-wide into the stretch and lacked the kick needed for impact. KILLIN ME SMALLS broke slow brushing HEMLOCK CHANNEL, raced wide through the backstretch, took closer order and was unable to sustain the bid that was needed. HOT RODIN vied outside for the early lead, disposed of inside rival, was overtaken, roused for more in the far turn and weakened. MISTER JANGLES raced near the back of the pack, raced five-wide through the backstretch, then was four to five-wide into the drive and offered a late mild rally. MEDIA MELEE sat mid pack, was bumped at the three eighths pole and came up empty for the drive. SHIMSHINE drifted inward bumping MEDIA MELEE approaching the far turn and lacked a closing response. DOUBLE BEAR offered little. HEMLOCK CHANNEL brushed leaving, saved early, steadied at the three eighths pole along the rail and yielded. IRISH GOLD hustled to the front, was quickly overtaken, finished early and was eased.
