SAINTE ANNA broke in front, was never headed by any rivals setting the early pace, drew off under steadily under a drive from the rider through the final furlong. YOGI GOT MILK raced up close outside the leader, couldn't get to that one leaving the turn then finished clearly second best. LOU TASS forwardly placed three wide, faded leaving the turn and steadily weakened. REELEY JEFF chasing the leaders widest of all, moved inside racing off the turn then soon tired. DESERT SAFARI raced up close from inside rivals and in a bit tight briefly, moved out racing off the turn to make an attempted bid then was soon eased in upper stretch when the rider sensed something off then pulled up and was vanned off.
