ASCENDANCY broke well but opted to cede the lead to LIBERAL LADY then was patiently ridden in close attendance to the slow pace for the first half-mile, saved ground through the far turn then tipped out a path to bid for the lead passing the quarter pole, dueled with a resurgent foe to deep stretch while being floated out to the middle of the track, gained the upper hand in the final yards to prevail. LIBERAL LADY broke well, got to the lead before the first turn and attempted to slow down the pace, kept a length or two ahead of PRINCESA DEL TIGRE and ASCENDANCY turning down the backstretch, held the lead through the far turn while quickening the pace, met the challenge posed by that same pair of rivals at the quarter pole, had a short lead in the stretch while drifting out under left handed urging then gave way inside the final sixteenth. PRINCESA DEL TIGRE stalked the slow pace set by LIBERAL LADY through the early stages while racing in the three to four path, advanced through the far turn then was on the outside as three horse bid for the lead passing the quarter pole, checked briefly and altered course in deep stretch could not recover but easily held third. DELUSIVELY raced at the rear of the leading group through the early stages, started to lose some ground passing the half-mile pole as the pace of the race quickened, went into a drive and finished evenly towards the inside but was not quite good enough despite a solid effort. BOLD DAUGHTER had no early speed and dropped far behind before the first turn, continued to lose ground as the race progressed could do no better than chase the field home.
